Dear SJV Families

Our school, along with all other BCE schools, is engaged in the Delivering Excellent Learning and Teaching (DELT) Strategy. DELT seeks to inspire high expectations or learning that maximises engagement, progress and achievement for each student in our school. This year the students have been learning about growth mindsets which help them to believe that their most basic abilities can be developed through dedication and hard work. Our SJV Learner Powers also help students to think about how they can be successful learners. As teachers and parents, we can encourage a growth mindset by advocating for our children to focus on being challenged and putting in the effort needed to grow and achieve individual success.

Walk Safely To School Day
Thank you to all the students, parents and staff who participated in the National Walk Safely to School morning. It was a great opportunity for our community to support the initiatives of road safety, health, public transport and the environment.

Best wishes for a great week ahead.

Kathryn Lambkin (Acting Principal)

APRE NEWS

Staff Professional Development

On Thursday, the SJV teachers engaged in a twilight professional development session. Sr Mary Franzmann, a Presentation sister, facilitated the first session on the spirituality of Nano Nagle based on the four elements. This was followed by a session focussed on creative ways to pray. Sr Mary prompted the staff to reflect on how we can live out the charism of the Presentation sisters, based on Nano Nagle’s virtues of hospitality, simplicity, justice and compassion. Being ‘Presentation People’ is a challenge to all:

- Live and keep alive the charism and spirit of Nano Nagle and openly share her vision with others
- Accept responsibility to make a difference in our time
- Are about justice and peace
- Endeavour to respond with compassion to the challenges of our time

This week’s quote from Amoris Laetitia:

"Being able to forgive others implies the liberating experience of understanding and forgiving ourselves"

HEALTH & PHYSICAL EDUCATION

Tip for the Week: Those who bring sunshine to the lives of others cannot keep it from themselves—James M. Barry

St Anthony’s Cross Country—Thursday June 2
Thank you to all the parents and carers who have returned the permission/medical forms for the Invitational Carnival next week. Please ensure all the sections have been completed on the forms, as we need to be compliant with health and safety regulations. The competitors are continuing some fitness activities during class PE lessons; however, they will need to do some other forms of fitness outside of school hours. I would also recommend that they attend this Friday’s Running Club. Next Wednesday we will have a meeting with all the competitors to receive their school running shirts and ensure they are familiar with the details of the carnival. The bus will leave SJV at 9:00am on the day. A copy of the available canteen items are included in this newsletter.

Senior Athletics Carnival: Moreton Bay Girls’ College—Friday July 15
Please be advised that the High Jump Event will be conducted during lunch times at school, beginning this week, on Tuesdays, Wednesdays and Fridays. All students born 2008 to 2004 (8 years to 12 years) will be invited to participate. Please ensure they bring their sports’ clothes with them to school on these days.

Junior Athletics Carnival: SJV—Thursday 23 June
The Prep to Year 2 students have been preparing for their activities for their carnival in the last week of the term. The program of events is in its final preparation stage and will be forwarded shortly.

All Australian schools will participate in the NCCD.

The course will be held next Wednesday 1 June at 2.00pm in the office conference room. The course runs for approximately 30 minutes. Please phone Julie or Gayle in the office to register your attendance.

CONGRATULATIONS!

Congratulations Sophie Booker for achieving Honours for her Grade Three AMEB Piano Exam. Well done Sophie.

SJV BUSINESS DIRECTORY

St John Vianney’s School in conjunction with the SJV P&F Association would like to update the SJV Business Directory in 2016. We are inviting parents or grandparents of children currently enrolled at SJV to submit their business details so their businesses can be promoted within our school community. Details must be submitted to the school by 31 May 2016 for inclusion in the Business Directory for distribution by the end of Term 2. An email with further information was emailed to all parents last week.

IMPETIGO—SCHOOL SORES

Currently we have a significant number of cases of impetigo at the school. Impetigo (school sores) is a highly contagious type of skin infection caused by the Staphylococcus or Streptococcus bacteria. School sores appear as a flat, yellow, crusty or moist patch on the skin, usually on exposed parts of the body such as the face and legs. The sores are often greater than 1cm in diameter. Students suffering from impetigo are to be excluded from school until receiving appropriate antibiotics for at least 24 hours. Weeping or crusted sores on exposed areas should always be covered with a watertight dressing until at least 24 hours post antibiotics commenced and for as long as practical.

DROP OFF/PICK UP AREAS

The success of loading zones requires cooperation from all motorists using it to ensure quick movement of vehicles through the area.

Please observe any time frames on the sign (see example) and only stay in the area for as long as it takes to get the children in to or out of the car within a two minute timeframe. The SJV time frames are 7am-9am and 2pm-4pm. The driver must not park the car in these signed areas and go into the school with the children or to pick up their children.

This area is designed to keep the vehicles moving. It is there for the convenience of ALL motorists.

Please do:

Plan your trip to avoid arrival at peak times
Pick-up or drop-off children via the car’s kerb doors
Drive out safely

If your children are not at the pick up zone, go around the block and try again

Please do not:

Get out of your vehicle
Double park
Stay more than 2 minutes
Arrive early in the afternoon and sit in the zone

WHAT IS THE NATIONAL DATA COLLECTION?

The Nationally Consistent Collection of Data on School Students with Disability (the national data collection) is an annual collection that counts the number of school students with disability and the level of reasonable educational adjustment they are provided with.

The national data collection counts students who have been identified by a school team as receiving an adjustment to address a disability under the Disability Discrimination Act 1992 (the DDA). The DDA can be accessed from the ComLaw website at www.comlaw.gov.au.

WHAT IS THE BENEFIT FOR MY CHILD?

The aim of the national data collection is to collect quality information about school students with disability in Australia.

This information will help teachers, principals, education authorities and families to better support students with disability to take part in school on the same basis as students without disability.

The national data collection is an opportunity for schools to review their learning and support systems and processes to continually improve education outcomes for their students with disability.

WHY IS THIS DATA BEING COLLECTED?

All schools across Australia collect information about students with disability. But the type of information currently collected varies between each state and territory and across government, Catholic and independent school sectors.

When undertaking the national data collection, every school in Australia will use the same method to collect information. Therefore, a government school in suburban Sydney will collect and submit data in the same way as a Catholic school in country Victoria and an independent school in the Northern Territory.

The information provided through the national data collection will enable all Australian governments to improve target support and resources to benefit students with disability.

WHAT ARE SCHOOLS REQUIRED TO DO FOR STUDENTS WITH DISABILITY?

All students are entitled to a quality learning experience at school.

Schools are required to make reasonable adjustments, where needed, to assist students with disability to access and participate in education free from discrimination and on the same basis as other students.

These responsibilities are outlined in the DDA and the Disability Standards for Education 2005 (the Standards). The Standards require educators, students, parents and others (e.g. allied health professionals) to work together so that students with disability can participate in education. The Standards can be accessed via the ComLaw website at www.comlaw.gov.au.

WHAT IS A REASONABLE ADJUSTMENT?

A reasonable adjustment is a measure or action taken to help a student with disability access and participate in education on the same basis as students without disability. Reasonable adjustments reflect the assessed individual needs of the student, and are provided in consultation with the student and/or their parents and carers. Reasonable adjustments can be made across the whole school setting (e.g. ramps into school buildings), in the classroom (such as adapting class lessons) and at an individual student level (e.g. extra tuition for a student with learning difficulties).

WHAT INFORMATION WILL BE COLLECTED?

Every year your child’s school will collect the following information for each student with a disability:

- the student’s level of education (i.e. primary or secondary)
- the student’s level of adjustment
- the student’s broad type of disability.
The information collected by schools will be provided to all governments to inform policy and programme improvement for students with disability.

WHO WILL BE INCLUDED IN THE NATIONAL DATA COLLECTION?

The definition of disability for the national data collection is based on the broad definition under the DDA.

For the purposes of the national data collection, students with learning difficulties such as dyslexia or auditory processing disorder as well as chronic health conditions like epilepsy, diabetes or asthma, that require active monitoring by the school, may be included.

WHO WILL COLLECT INFORMATION FOR THE NATIONAL DATA COLLECTION?

Teachers and school staff will count the number of students with disability in their school and the level of reasonable adjustment they are provided based on:

- consultation with parents and carers in the course of determining and providing reasonable adjustments
- the school team’s observations and professional judgments
- any medical or other professional diagnosis
- other relevant information.

School principals are responsible for ensuring the information identified about each student is accurate.

HOW WILL MY CHILD’S PRIVACY BE PROTECTED?

Protecting the privacy and confidentiality of all students and their families is essential. Personal details such as student names or other identifying information will not be provided to local or federal education authorities.

IS THE NATIONAL DATA COLLECTION COMPULSORY?

All education ministers agreed to full implementation of the national data collection from 2015. This means that all schools must now collect and submit information annually on the number of students with disability in their care and the level of adjustment provided to them.

Information about the arrangements that may apply to your school in relation to this data collection is available from your child’s school principal and the relevant education authority.

FURTHER INFORMATION

Contact your child’s school if you have further questions about the Nationally Consistent Collection of Data on School Students with Disability.
